

Spa Study Tour 2010

Experience authentic Chinese spa

Throughout the world, spas are increasingly looking to China for effective and exotic treatments founded in Traditional Chinese Medicine. But how do you know what's authentic? And how do you evaluate quality? The China spa Association, in collaboration with the Asia-Pacific spa & Wellness Coalition, is pleased to host a study tour for those interested in learning more about China's wealth of traditional therapy.

The study tour welcomes:

- spa & wellness professionals from any country:
- including operators, employees, trainers, consultants, suppliers, etc.
- Numbers are limited to 20 people to ensure good interaction and learning.
- Priority is given to members of the China spa Association and APSWC's constituent associations.
- If places are available, the tour may also be open to partners and interested members of the public.
